

ACCOUNTING FIRMS TO CBIZ CMF

Pathway to Career Progression

If you're transitioning out of the Big 4 or other large accounting firms and seeking alternatives and optionality in your career path, CBIZ CMF provides you with the opportunity to leverage your experience and become a finance executive in and consult with middle market businesses throughout a variety of industries. CBIZ CMF's Office of the CFO, Transaction Advisory, and Strategic FP&A practices give you extensive experience in M&A, private equity, financial systems, operations, reporting and analytics. Below are sample career progressions for consideration:

CBIZ CMF Careers in Action

Rob Rostron, CPA, Senior Director

Rob has more than 22 years of financial and operating experience, including over 15 years of expertise leading due diligence and M&A transaction services-related work. As a Senior Director at CBIZ CMF, Rob leads the talent initiative to ensure the technical quality of all CBIZ CMF teams – for both consulting engagements and full-time executive searches. Prior to joining CBIZ CMF, Rob was a Director of M&A at Deloitte & Touche LLP in New York City within the firm's partner group.

Clare Yuritch, CPA, Senior Director

Clare has nearly 15 years of project management, consulting and operational experience and leads financial and operational consulting engagements for clients across a variety of industries. Her expertise includes business combinations and carve outs, transaction and technical accounting, merger integration, process improvement and interim CFO services.

Prior to joining CBIZ CMF, Clare was a Manager with PricewaterhouseCoopers and built a solid record of accomplishments and reputation for excellence working with Fortune 100 clients within the consumer, industrial and chemical manufacturing sectors.